Privacy Notice – Education Agents

The Institute of International Studies (IOIS) is required to collect certain personal and business information from education agents as part of the application, approval, and ongoing monitoring process.

This information is collected to:

- Assess and manage your application to act as an authorised IOIS education agent.
- Maintain accurate records of agreements, performance, and compliance.
- Communicate with you regarding your agency relationship with IOIS.
- Meet IOIS's obligations as a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) under the Standards for RTOs 2025 and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Your information may be disclosed to:

- The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) or other regulators, if required.
- Independent auditors or quality assurance reviewers engaged by IOIS.
- Other third parties where necessary to manage your agent agreement, or as required by law.

Your information will not be shared with overseas or unrelated third parties without your consent, except where authorised or required by law.

You have the right to access and correct your personal information held by IOIS. Requests should be directed to IOIS using the contact details provided in this agreement.

Education Agent Declaration – IOIS

- I declare that the information provided in this application is true and correct.
- I agree to the collection, use, and disclosure of my personal information in accordance with the IOIS Privacy Notice.
- I understand my responsibilities as an education agent under my agreement with IOIS and commit to acting honestly, fairly, and in the best interests of students at all times.
- I will provide accurate and ethical information to students about IOIS courses, policies, and procedures, and support them in making informed decisions about their study options.
- I will comply with all applicable IOIS policies, the Standards for RTOs 2025, and relevant Australian consumer protection laws.
